Acts 5:28-30 (NET)

“God exalted him to his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses of these events, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.”

Now when they heard this, they became furious and wanted to execute them.

He was killed, and all who followed him were dispersed and nothing came of it. After him Judas the Galilean arose in the days of the census and incited people to follow him in revolt. He too was killed, and all who followed him were scattered. So in this case I say to you, stay away from these men and leave them alone because if this plan or this undertaking originates with people,* it will come to nothing, but if it is from God, you will not be able to stop them, or you may even be found fighting against God.” He convinced them, and they summoned the apostles and had them beaten. Then they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them.

1. Have you ever encountered opposition or difficulty because of your faith? What has that experience been like?
2. When you think of the word “persecution”, what comes to mind? When you think of millions of Christians around the world experiencing persecution or discrimination because of their faith, what do you think your response can or should be?
3. What do you think your calling is? What do you think your assignment is?
